University of Michigan
CSE Lecturer I

Responsibilities
Teach introductory and advanced courses in Computer Science and Engineering including programming, data structures, databases, operating systems, networking, security and distributed systems. The instructor will be responsible for developing course materials, lecturing, holding office hours and preparing and grading exams, managing and grading class projects, and managing assigned class staff.

Required Qualifications
• The instructor must have demonstrated knowledge of Computer Science
• Master's degree in a related field
• Strong oral presentation and communication skills

Selection criteria based on resume with supplemental materials, in-person interview and oral presentation to be given to CSE faculty.

Desired Qualifications
PhD in related field, prior experience teaching a computer science class.

Additional Information
Department: Computer Science & Engineering
Hours: 32 (80%)
Appointment period: Sept-April (8 months)
Duration of appointment: Sept. 1, 2015 through April 30, 2016
Sept. 2, 2016 through April 30, 2017
Salary range: $56,000 to $72,000 FTE (100%), dependent upon experience and credentials.
of Openings: 1-5 for the coming 2015-2016 academic year.

Union Affiliation
This position is covered under the collective bargaining agreement between the U-M and the Lecturers Employee Organization, AFL-CIO, which contains and settles all matters with respect to wages, benefits, hours and other terms and conditions of employment.

Application Deadline
Application deadline is March 31, 2015
Decisions will be made by June 30, 2015.
Final hiring approval is subject to UM higher administrative approval.
Applications are accepted through the University of Michigan’s job posting site: umjobs.org
Posting #: 107035
This is 1 of 5 openings posted.

U-M EEO/AA Statement
The University of Michigan is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.