The Academic Success Program is hiring tutors for the Winter 2019 semester. We are looking for intelligent, professional and personable people who are interested in sharing their knowledge with others. These tutors need to be incredibly quick-thinkers with the ability to explain concepts in a variety of methods to a diverse group of learners. Outstanding communication skills are necessary. The following courses are ones in which tutors are needed:

EECS 183
EECS 203
EECS 270
EECS 280
EECS 370

Please see this detailed explanation of the responsibilities and requirements for the tutor position. If you believe you would be a good candidate for the position, feel free to apply by using the following link.

As part of the application process, you will be asked to submit a resume and transcript in the application form. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Kevin Lubrano, klubrano@umich.edu.

Recruiting Full-Time Research Assistant(s) for Big Data Project at UM

The Criminal Justice Administrative Records System (CJARS), a next-generation data and research infrastructure project, is recruiting research assistant(s) with start dates in January 2019 and Summer 2019. CJARS was co-founded by UM economist, Michael Mueller-Smith, with the U.S. Census Bureau and will help support a new generation of evidence-based policy making.

Graduating students with backgrounds in economics, public policy, statistics, or computer science are encouraged to apply. The positions are full-time and two years in duration making them an ideal fit for those interested in building research experience prior to applying to Ph.D. programs in related fields.

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. Apply here.

Undergraduate Cross-Departmental Research Symposium Interest Survey

The purpose of this survey is to gauge interest in a symposium for undergraduates from multiple departments and colleges across the university, providing the opportunity to share their research with other undergraduates. Responses to this form are not a commitment to participating in the event. Please fill out the form so we can have an idea of potential interest and numbers. If there are any questions, please contact Sara Alektiar (saraalek@umich.edu).

TEDxUofM: Award for Innovation
February 22, 2019

My name is Malana Chan, and I am a first year student at the University of Michigan and a member of TEDxUofM on campus. I am writing to you on behalf of your involvement within Computer Science - Honors because I believe members from your organization would be interested in applying for the TEDxUofM Award for Innovation. Every year, TEDxUofM awards an annual prize of $1000 to an individual or group for a project that demonstrates creativity, innovation, and vision. The award is designed to encourage collaboration and foster a culture of innovation on campus. I hope you will consider participating in this exciting opportunity.
Duo Security Usability Testing

Duo Security is seeking Duo users for 25-minute usability testing sessions. Can be...

- Anyone who uses Duo (but doesn't administrate it)
- IT admins, or
- Support specialists

Our 25-minute sessions are done via remote meeting (and moderated by a UMSI alum!). There's a $25 Amazon Gift Card as a token of our thanks.

Interested yourself? Or know someone not on this email list who might be interested? Please email me at uptest@duo.com or mdmtk@umich.edu

Call for Nominations:
2019 North Campus Dean's Martin Luther King Jr. Spirit Awards

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2019 North Campus Deans' Martin Luther King Jr. Spirit Awards. We encourage you to help us recognize members of our community who exemplify Dr. King in their leadership and vision. Awards are presented by the North Campus Deans on MLK Day during a special ceremony. The nomination categories include students, student organizations, faculty and staff. Please find descriptions and links to nomination forms for the awards below.

2019 Student Award
The MLK Spirit Award for students recognizes North Campus students who exemplify the leadership and vision of Dr. King. You may be aware of students whose work leads or inspires others towards equality and social justice. This work could be part of their academic or co-curricular experience or may be something outside of their life as a student. Please consider completing this simple nomination process so that the exemplary activities of the North Campus students can be celebrated. You can nominate as many students as you like.

To nominate, please fill out the Student Nomination Form

2019 Student Organization Award
The MLK Spirit Award for student organizations recognizes groups whose commitment to social justice, diversity and inclusion has positively impacted the campus community or the wider community via outreach, education, special projects or student member development.

* Awards will be given to one student organization of 19 members or less and one student organization with 20 members or more.

To nominate, please fill out the Student Organization Nomination Form

2019 Faculty Award
The MLK Spirit Award for faculty will honor faculty whose scholarship and/or teaching leads or inspires students to develop and utilize their talents to seek social justice and personal excellence. All faculty members in the North Campus Community are eligible for this recognition.

To nominate, please fill out the Faculty Nomination Form

2019 Staff Award
The MLK Spirit Award for Staff is given to staff whose guidance and encouragement inspires students or student groups to develop leadership seeking social justice, or whose own efforts have created a more equitable and inclusive environment on campus and beyond.
To nominate, please fill out the Staff Nomination Form.

North Campus includes:

- College of Engineering
- School of Music, Theatre & Dance
- Stamps School of Art & Design
- Taubman College of Architecture & Urban Planning
- Arts Engine
- Duderstadt Center

Nominations are due on Monday, December 3, 2018.

The 2019 North Campus Deans’ MLK Spirit Awards Ceremony and Reception will be held on Monday, January 21 from 4:30 - 6:00 pm followed by a reception in the Chesebrough Auditorium, 2121 Bonisteel Boulevard.

Questions about the MLK North Campus events or nomination forms can be directed to Rikki Morrow-Spitzer (rkkims@umich.edu) or Brian Banks (bbscott@umich.edu).

Respectfully Yours,
2019 North Campus Deans’ Martin Luther King Jr. Spirit Awards Committee
